NOTICE of Non-Preferential Treatment of Donors

Celebrate Children International, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) organization and exists to serve children and families through international adoption and humanitarian aid. As such, CCI accepts donations in order to support its humanitarian aid programs in various countries.

CCI is aware that families adopting through CCI's adoption program may also be past, present or future donors to the humanitarian aid program through the requested $500 humanitarian donation asked of adopting families, the child sponsorship program, special projects or other donations to CCI for philanthropic purposes.

Be it known that CCI does not give preferential treatment to adopting families who choose to donate to CCI's humanitarian aid program, nor does a client's choice to not donate to CCI's humanitarian aid program affect CCI's treatment of the client or processing of the client's adoption. In no way does any humanitarian aid donation (or lack thereof), affect CCI's services provided to the PAP or child, the adoption proceedings, or CCI's decision to place any child or any specific child with the PAP.

CCI does not require any humanitarian aid donation from its clients, except when required by the laws or known processes of the chosen country program (such requirement would be noted on the country fee contract as a fee, not a donation). CCI clients are requested to donate $500 to CCI's humanitarian aid program, but all clients are free to deny the request without punishment or penalty.

CCI clients are not permitted to donate in excess of $2,500 in the period starting 12 months prior to the adoption application being submitted and ending 12 months after the adoption is complete or the application/adoption process is terminated. Should a past donor who has already donated in excess of $2,500 to CCI decide to adopt, CCI's Board of Directors would be required to approve an exception to the stated procedure.
